

ThisisLiveArt

Weekly email Bulletin -- guidelines for submission

The Agency sends a posting to its email list (3,000 subscribers) each Monday, to promote a range of national and international Live Art initiatives or projects. ThisisLiveArt focuses on listings which we hope will be of broad interest to the Live Art community, including calls for proposals, festival/season announcements, educational projects and artistic and professional opportunities. ThisisLiveArt is not able to promote individual projects such as one off shows, tours or singular events by one artist etc.

The Agency's weekly email serves to complement, not duplicate, the fantastic service provided by Artsadmin's e-digest (www.artsadmin.co.uk), New Work Network's Weekly Digest (www.newworknetwork.org.uk) and the Live Art List (www.jiscmail.ac.uk/lists/liveart.html).

If you would like to submit material for inclusion in the weekly email, please send the following by Friday Noon, four days prior to the email:

1. Text: 200 words maximum (excluding title/headline). We will include your text as submitted, so please ensure it is proofed for spelling and grammar. We encourage you to include a URL link to your own website, so fuller information can be accessed. Text should be sent in a Word document/attachment.

2. Image: Please provide one image of 72 dpi, along with a written image credit. It is unlikely we will be able to feature your listing without an image and credit, although we may include it as a link.

Send material to: info@thisisliveart.co.uk

Regrettably we do not have enough space to be able to include everything we receive.
